THEREOPATHY MEDICAL OFFICE OF DR. J. KIRUT and Dr. CURUISER, No. 175 Second street, New York.

It is a fact, well known by physicians of all schools, and but too a fact, well known by physicians of all schools, and but too a fact, well known by physicians of all schools, and but too be a fact, well known by physicians of all schools, and but too so a fact, we have been a sequenced to be determined by the second of the numan race. A new method has but lately spreamy of under the ausgioes of the most celebrated professor, Br. Le voiser, "the Ethercopathy." This we have industriously studied, tried, and since we have found it superior to any other method, adopted and now improved in such a man we as to pronounce it e unidentially the very best method in existence. The ethercal essences of herbs and flowers exert their full influence over the sanguinary system and produce even in the most obstinate diseases such an alteration that on the fourth days most agreeable feeling creeps over the whole body, such as is only experienced after recovering from most accere diseases. There is no malady that resists this irratment, unless the energy of life be wholly exhausted. Diseases of the head, eye, ear, throat, imag, heart, liver, spleen, stomach and gonitals give way to the Ethercopathy. Consumption and fatty degeneration, supericlad cuts and cancer, intermittent and typicus, theumation and gout, all are compered. Premature old age to replaced by natural youthfulness and debitity by power and activity. The deed heart, the bifut see, the hopotent become manial, the woble impregnated with new life. The treatment is agreeable, prompt and sure.
